THE CHIEF SPEAKS

"You get as much out of an organization as you put into it", is an old saying. Read that again and then let your mind wander back to the time when you were a good Scout in a good Patrol in a good Troop. What made your Patrol and Troop good? Wasn't it good because of the participation of all of the individual Scouts? Well, that's how it is with the Arrow.

One, two or five years ago you were elected by your fellow Scouts as a Candidate for the Order of The Arrow. To the less fortunate Scouts you were the IDEAL Scout in the Troop. Your Scoutmaster depended upon you for a good job whenever he needed help. Yes, you were the IDEAL Scout in the Troop - but are you still living up to those same standards today? Are you helping the Scouts of today like you did before you became an Arrow man? If you are -- fine; if not -- you are letting those Scouts down.

"Just how can I help those Scouts"? is a question

16M which you may ask. My answer to you is very simple. Get active in your chapter of the Arrow.

Black Hawk Chapter has been doing a fine job of helping out the leaders of various Units who need assistance in running a good program for their Scouts. But unless of our own members are willing to pitch in and do a job - we may be letting down some of those younger Scouts.

In addition to serving in the name of your Arrow chapter, I am sure you will enjoy the personal satisfaction which comes when you know that you have helped some younger Scouts. Try it and see if I'm not right. Come out to the meeting and find out how you can serve in this way.

RITUAL TEAM IS ACTIVE IN SERVICE TO THE UNITS

We learned from Don Meindersma, Chairman of the Ritual Teams that his gang has been very busy with dances, and ceremonial work for a number of different units during the last month.
